COAL STRIKE ENDS

MINERS ACCEPT WILSON PLAN FOR SETTLEMENT ON 14 PER CENT RAISE

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 9.—Special—Attorney General Palmer announces the President's proposal for basis of settling coal strike. The plan calls for fourteen per cent wage increase.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 9.—The White House received a telegram from Palmer announcing miners will agree to the President's plan.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 9.—Acceptance by the conference of miners officials here today of the wage proposal made by the President will bring the coal strike to a definite end.

This statement was made today by John L. Lewis, acting-President of the mine workers, who accepted the proposition made by President Wilson in Washington.

"There can be no question but that the strike will be definitely ended and the men will return to work if the conference accepts President Wilson's proposal," declared Lewis.

The miners' executive already had expressed the belief that the conference would ratify the government's terms.

Lewis steadfastly declined to reveal the amount of wage increase contained in the government's proffer.

"Will the price of coal to the public be increased if the present wage proposal is accepted?" he was asked.

"That bears on the entire subject matter of the situation and I am not in a position to answer," Lewis replied.

Today in the opinion of government and miners circles is the "judgment day" in the coal crises. With final settlement of the coal situation in prospect before nightfall, three outstanding developments were promised for the day.

POLICE CAPTURE TWO MEMBERS OF ROBBER GANG IN CLEVELAND

Cleveland, O., Dec. 9.—Two members of a gang of five safe robbers who had opened the safe of the Cleveland Grain Drying company were captured early this morning by the police as they were looting the safe. The three who escaped were followed by a score of bullets, none of which is believed to have taken effect. One of the fleeing robbers was heard to cry out as if in pain.

The capture was the first effected by the new flying squadron, instituted by Chief of Police Smith in an effort to cope with the growing crime wave. Sixty-one new patrolmen were in the job today.

Chief Smith announced that the police chiefs of Ohio will press their fight before the legislature for repeal of the parole and indeterminate sentence laws.

Police have obtained no trace of the slayers of Patrolman Robert Shelton the fourth murdered policeman this year in Cleveland.

GERMANY MAY ACCEPT MODIFIED TERMS OF REPRESENTATIVES

Paris, Dec. 9.—The allies have consented to modify some of the terms of the protocol putting the peace treaty into effect to which Germany has objected.

The clause providing for indemnity for destruction of the German Scapa Flow has been modified so as to refer to The Hague tribunal the question whether the delivery of the tonnage demanded will cripple Germany, it is understood.

The understanding also is that the other features of the protocol most objectionable to the Germans have been eliminated. It is expected that the German plenipotentiaries will sign the protocol without much further delay.

The final paragraph of the protocol providing that, even after the peace treaty has gone into effect, the allies might use military measures of coercion to insure the execution of the treaty's terms, has been eliminated entirely, as also has the clause relating to the evacuation of the Balkan provinces by German troops.

WILL POSTPONE INVESTIGATION OF COAL STRIKE

Indianapolis, Dec. 9.—At the request of Attorney General Palmer, the grand jury investigation of the activities of the coal operators and miners during the war, was postponed today until Wednesday, December 17.

Attorney General Palmer appeared personally before Federal Judge Anderson and asked that the investigation be postponed until that date explaining that "in view of recent developments in the coal situation" this continuance was asked.

Judge Ames appeared at the federal building and stated that since the contempt proceedings were started certain facts had arisen which made it necessary that the hearing of the charges of contempt of court against the miners and officials be continued.

Federal Judge Anderson then suggested Tuesday as the day on which the trial of the accused miners officials would be started.

Attorneys representing the miners officials concurred in the request by Judge Ames for a continuance of the case.

BEET SUGAR ON WAY NORTH; MAY RELIEVE SUPPLY

New York, Dec. 9.—Fifty million pounds of Louisiana beet sugar is being shipped into territory east of Pittsburgh and Buffalo and north of Virginia, it was announced here by the sugar equalization board. These shipments, which are due to reach their destination by the end of the year, are expected to relieve to a considerable extent the present sugar shortage, but not to equal the demand for sugar, which has grown to abnormal size because of fear of still higher prices.

Twenty million pounds of the product has been allocated to the Greater New York district, part of which already has been removed and will be made available to retailers this week. The steamship Inca has arrived here with the first cargo of the new San Domingo sugar crop to reach this country.

Reports that heavy shipments of sugar were being sent abroad by refiners to gorge foreign consumers and starve the American sugar consuming public have received such extensive circulation that the equalization board was led to issue an official denial of them.

SUSTAINS OHIO COLD STORAGE ACT--TEST CASE IN OHIO COURT

Columbus, O., Dec. 9.—Sustaining the constitutionality of the Ohio cold storage act, the state supreme court today affirmed the action of the Franklin county courts which found Theodore Leonard, Jr., a Columbus merchant guilty of violating this act. Leonard was convicted of keeping fowl in cold storage beyond the time limit prescribed by the cold storage act.

Over a score of cases in various courts throughout Ohio have been held in abeyance pending decision of this case. The defendants in these suits are charged with violating the cold storage act. The litigation, which was instituted under the supervision of Governor Cox and Attorney General Price in an effort to reduce the high cost of living, is now expected to be resumed.

NO EMBARGO ON FREIGHT EXPECTED

Washington, Dec. 9.—A national freight embargo is not contemplated at this time, the railroad administration announced today. It was stated the situation brought about by the coal strike can be handled by the regional directors declaring local embargoes.

Some western roads urged regional directors to ask for a national embargo.

"BETTER" SAYS GRAYSON OF WILSON'S CONDITION

Washington, Dec. 9.—President Wilson's condition was described by Dr. Grayson with just one word today.

"Better," said the physician. Plans are now being discussed by Mrs. Wilson and the president for a reunion of the family at the White House at Christmas.

TRAIN SERVICE THROUGH XENIA CURTAILED NOW

PENNSYLVANIA AND B. & O. ANNOUNCE NEW SCHEDULES DUE TO CONSERVATION ORDER OF GARFIELD.

Trains scheduled through here both on the Pennsylvania and the B. & O. lines will be affected by the order just issued to cut mileage in order to conserve coal.

Three trains on the Pennsylvania schedule will be cut off by the order. Train No. 205, which leaves Xenia for Cincinnati at 8:30 a. m., train No. 234 which leaves here for Columbus at 5:50 p. m., and the 6:50 train out of here for Dayton, Richmond and St. Louis have all been removed.

Train No. 1231 which leaves here at 8:10 a. m. for Cincinnati will stop at Spring Valley, Waynesville and Morrow, to take care of those places, and train No. 1234 for Columbus at 7:02 in the evening will also make all stops.

The passenger service over the Baltimore and Ohio will be cut in half by the order. Trains No. 67 and 70 having been removed entirely. These trains are the morning train to Dayton and the evening train to Chillicothe, all stations between these two points being affected by the change.

Under the new order only two trains, a train east in the morning and a train west in the evening, will be operated by the B. & O. through this city.

A cut aggregating 10 per cent of the passenger train mileage, in order to conserve coal, is the cause of the changes.

FRANK GARLAND WILL TALK ON NEW HOSPITAL

An issue of vital importance to the people of Greene county will be discussed by Dr. Frank Garland, director of Public Welfare of Dayton, at the regular noon luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday.

Dr. Garland will speak on the subject "Conservation of Humanity," and in the course of his address will tell of the advantages of modern hospital.

What is of especial interest locally is the fact to be brought out that consular Agent William O. Jenkins has already been released.

Pубlication today of the complete report made by Senator Fall to President Wilson on the Mexican situation was not expected to change materially the situation.

EXPECT DEVELOPMENT IN MEXICAN SITUATION AS CARRANZA REPLY STARTS

Generally Believed That Answer Will Be in Favor of Another Evasion of Real Issue. President Considers Fall Report.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The next development in the Mexican situation is expected today with the probable arrival of the Carranza reply to the last note of the state department.

The reply is understood to be in the course of transmission. It is generally believed here that the note will be another attempt at evasion, pointing out that consular Agent William O. Jenkins has already been released.

Pубlication today of the complete report made by Senator Fall to President Wilson on the Mexican situation was not expected to change materially the situation.

The charges made by Senator Fall that there has been collusion between officials of the state department.

President Wilson is studying the report made by Senator Fall and if he decides that there is sufficient evidence embodied in it to warrant the action, he will take the matter up with Secretary of State Lansing.

While it is understood that the poorer counties of the state are fighting the measure the strongest, there has also been some opposition locally, the chief snag in the measure being the matter of expense to the community.

The bill provides for an elaborate system of disease fighting that includes a county physician, two nurses, bacteriologist, clerk, equipment and automobiles for transportation over the county, and many of the counties are rebelling against the expense to be incurred in this manner.

Physicians, who are more closely in touch with the health situation than any one else, have strongly favored the bill. City Health Officer Dr. R. H. Grube favors the project from the standpoint of public health although he admitted that there was much opposition to the bill because of the expense to the counties.

City Manager Kenyon Riddle, who was a member of the body organizing the public health committee, is also thoroughly in favor with the plan, as a motive to preserve health and fight disease in the county.

In fact the system is flawless, and only the fact that its expense to the counties is so great that they are hardly able to take care of it, has caused the opposition to the bill to arise.

MILK DEALERS ARE ANNOUNCING RAISE OF 1 CENT A QUART

New York, Dec. 9.—In a statement issued at the White House, hope for settlement of the coal strike is held out. The statement said: "It is hoped that there will be a settlement this afternoon of the controversy between the miners, the operators and the government through acceptance by the miners of a plan for a definite settlement proposed by the president, which proposal was submitted to Acting President Lewis of the miners by Attorney General Palmer Saturday night."

Milk that has been selling at 7 cents a pint and 13 cents a quart has advanced a cent on each and is selling at 8 cents a pint and 14 cents a quart. Clarified milk, which has been selling at 8 cents a pint and 14 cents a quart will be 8 cents a pint and 15 cents a quart. The new price on clarified milk has not been put in effect yet, but will be done shortly.

The high price of butter fat is blamed for the raise in milk prices to carry home to their starving families. The cemeteries were long ago overcrowded with the ever growing population of cows. And above all this terrific horror the magnificent buildings, which once made Vienna rank as one of the foremost cities of the continent in architecture, stand like grim and foreboding monuments.

The country districts of Austria are conservative and reactionary in political thought and refuse to give aid to the capital city which they regard as radical.

Although the farmers and the residents of small towns are not revelling in plenty they have quantities of food which it is believed they could spare for the population of this city. If you ask a resident of the rural districts why the country people are not receiving the starving city the invariable answer is:

NOTICE TO ORGANIZATIONS ON ANNOUNCEMENTS

"Conserve newsprint or suffer a paper famine" has been the warning of paper mills to publishers for the past few months. This prediction is fast approaching actuality and in order to protect themselves and their customers, publishers have been forced to cut down their consumption of paper.

With this idea in mind the Gazette and Republican recently announced that a slight charge would be made for announcements of meetings which they had, prior to that time, printed free. Realizing that this ruling would work a hardship on many organizations, such as G. A. R., Social Service League and W. R. C., which had no fund to take care of this expense, these papers in the desire for co-operation and service wish to announce a new policy that will serve these ends.

All notices which were printed free before the change, will be carried the same way hereafter, providing that these notices are received at the offices of The Gazette and Republican, not later than 5 p.m. Friday. They will then be placed in a special position by themselves and appear in the papers of Saturday's issue. Notices will be printed on any other day, excepting at the full commercial rate.

TOBACCO BUSINESS IS ENLARGED; NEW COMPANY FORMED

The enlargement of the wholesale and retail tobacco business of Rufus Mullen will result from the formation of the Mullen-Jenkins Tobacco Company, comprised of Rufus Mullen and his brother-in-law S. B. Jenkins.

Mr. Jenkins, a former Xenian, who has been located in Cleveland for some time, has purchased an interest in the jobbing and retail tobacco business of Mr.
Mullen and with the combination the business will be increased to include a larger scope. Mr. Jenkins will travel for the company on the road and Mrs.
Jenkins will be bookkeeper for the new concern, the headquarters for which will still be located in the Mullen barber shop.

John Cyphers, who has been connected with Mr. Mullen for some time, will continue in his capacity as local and county salesman, and will travel through the county by automobile. Mr.
Mullen has turned over the supervision of his barber shop to Harvey Coates, who has been a barber at the Mullen shop for several years, and who will have direct charge of that department.
Mr. Mullen himself, while heading the new company, will act as general manager and buyer.

It is the plan of the company to extend the tobacco jobbing business to double its present capacity, carrying and handling larger lines over a greater territory.

"Knew we'd get together"

—Ches. Field

HERE'S where the particular smoker meets the particular smoke—Chesterfield.

Particular is right! Not only do we use the four choicest varieties of Turkish tobacco—Xanthi, Cavalla, Smyrna and Samsoun—but to these we add the rich, sun-ripened leaves of specially choice Domestic tobacco.

Fine as these tobaccos are, it's the exclusive process by which they are blended that gives to Chesterfields that satisfying body, that mellow richness which makes a smoke mean something.

Chesterfields certainly do satisfy as no other cigarette has satisfied you before—and to top it off, they are packed in a glass-ine paper package that preserves for you all of that delicious flavor.

THE SIN OF EXTRAVAGANCE.

The Savings Division of the Treasury Department has been making investigations, and finds that the high prices of necessities and non-necessities are due to reckless spending and waste. It gives the testimony of merchants in various lines of trade that increased income has led not to saving but to extravagance.

That is worth reading again. It says that the high prices of necessities is due to reckless spending. Reckless spending—by whom? Certainly not by the mechanic who, after paying his rent, is hard pressed to find the means to feed and clothe his wife and children. No. He has to pinch all the time to keep his head above water. No extravagance on his part.

Who then, are these "reckless spenders" who are to blame for the high prices of the necessities of life? Why, they are the rich, and the well-to-do people. With them money is so plenty that they pay any price asked, and thus boom trade. The merchant, finding plenty of customers at the high prices, and making so much money for himself, feels no reason for lowering prices—and thus the poor man is caught between the upper and nether millstone and his life almost squeezed out.

Well, what is the remedy. It is to try to shame people for reckless buying—to try to show them that they are doing a sinful thing to thus keep up the price on the poor. They are doing a double harm. They are harming themselves, for extravagance is wrong—and they are harming the poor, who so much need cheaper prices.

Many a well-to-do man is spending money for fine clothes, jewelry and automobiles, which he cannot afford; who ought to be buying himself a home with the money. He is one of the class whose money seems to burn holes in their pockets.

We read of one chain of drug stores which alone sold $6,000,000 worth of perfumes and cosmetics during the year. It may be highly enjoyable to smell like a sweet-scented geranium, but the odor of $6,000,000 bearing interest in safe and profitable securities is not objectionable to the nostrils either.

The demand for diamonds and high-priced furs is enormous. The jeweler and the furrier say that these luxuries are not for old millionaires or the new rich. They are demanded by the rich, the salaried people and high priced wage earners who are squandering on them the savings piled up during the last few years.

The conclusion is that so long as extravagance and waste, reckless spending and dissipation of savings continues, prices will continue to remain at or above the present level; and that only saving, wise buying and safe and conservative investment will cause them to drop.

Economy is the parent of ease and the sister of cheerfulness. Large enterprises make the few rich, but the majority prosper only through thrift. A wise man once said the regard one shows Economy, is like that we show an old aunt who is to leave us something at last. Nothing is cheap which is superfluous; for what one does not need is dear at any price.

Mahogany Cultivation.

As grown in plantations, the mahogany is partially shaded until it attains the dimensions of a real forest tree. At first it may be grown among banana plants and later as it reaches the sapling size the bananas will be found replaced by cacao or chocolate trees. After these latter have produced 25 or 30 annual crops of their valuable beans the mahogany will practically take entire possession of the field and the cacao trees will be largely smothered out, bearing less and less each year as the more giant mahogany overshadows them. Plantations of mahogany and rubber trees growing together are also being experimented with, both being deep forest trees. In their early growth the rubber trees also require partial shade

X. H. S. COURT SEASON OPENS WITH ACADEMY

Preliminary action to starting the basketball season were taken at a meeting held Monday after school.

A paper was circulated last week to find the names of those who intended trying out for the teams and sixty-three signified their intention of doing so. From this list Coach Fairies selected twenty-five men from which to form the first squad and they were called to meet to line them up.

The meeting was for the purpose of presenting to the players competing for positions the plan under which basketball will be played.

Mr. Fairies took charge of the meeting and explained some of the conditions that will be met. It is planned to have two teams of practically the same strength so that either may be put on the floor. If the plan works out one team may play at home while the other is on a foreign court.

He explained the provisions for furnishing uniforms and said that there would be eight suits for each of the first two teams and about six suits left from last year. No one will be issued suits until the game Friday night.

The first practice will be held Tuesday night at the Rink. The first game is scheduled with Antioch Academy for this Friday night at the Rink.

The schedule has been almost completed and only one open date is left, but a number of teams want games and it will not be hard to get a game for that date. A few more games will probably be added to the schedule.

The complete schedule is: Dec. 12—Antioch Academy, here.

Dec. 19—Lebanon, here.

Dec. 26—Urbana, here.

Jan. 2—West High (Columbus) here.

Jan. 9—South High (Columbus) here.

Feb. 13—Urbana, away.

Feb. 20—Open.

Feb. 21—Liberty (Ind.) here.

Feb. 27—Norwood, here.

Mar. 5, 6—Delaware Tournament, away.

Mar. 12—Middletown, away.

Apostle Spoons.

Apostle spoons, also called "gossip spoons," were gilt spoons given by the sponsors or "gossips" to a child at its christening. They were so called because each spoon had a figure of an apostle on the handle. Wealthy people gave the whole twelve Apostles; those of less means and generosity gave the four Evangelists; while poorer persons had to be contented with one, being generally the figure of the donor's or of the child's patron saint.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR ZIMRI HAINES

That's Right; Say I Want CELERY KING

Get a package tonight. It's cheap and you can brew a lot of tea with on package.

Take a cup every other night to regulate your bowels, to purify your blood and make you strong so you can withstand an attack of influenza if it happens to come along this winter.

It's one great vegetable laxative, and it won't cost you but a few cents to find it out.

Children like it, and there is nothing better that you can give them when they are ailing.

RELIEF CAME AT LAST

Father Had Given Up Hope of Curing Son's Cough

Mr. A. F. Sherer, owner of a machine shop, Hawiard, Ohio, says, "My son had a cough for several years. We began to think his case a hopeless one. He could get no relief until he used Glandine Pine. Three bottles cured him."

A neglected cough has undoubtedly caused more deaths than any other agency. A lingering cough should be treated as soon as possible. If allowed to continue the tissues of the lungs will be promptly treated. If allowed to continue the power to resist epidemics of cold and grip is lessened.

By getting three ounces of Glandine Pine you can make one pint of excellent cough syrup. Keep it on hands and use it freely. Stop that cough before it has too firm a grip upon you. Don't be careless and make a mistake that may cost you your life.

If you get Glandine Pine from your druggist send 50 cents to The Gland-Aid Co., Paulding, Ohio, and it will be sent you.

It is easy to prepare, costs but little, and is pleasant to take. It is splendid for coughs, colds, bronchial affections, and highly recommended for croup. It will relieve the spasmodic coughing in whooping cough. Glandine Pine contains the pure form of white pine to which other valuable ingredients have been added. Directions for preparing accompany each bottle.

URGES PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY

Can Make Pint at Home and Costs Little, Says Leading Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made Special Study of Catarrh.

Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

People who say that catarrh is a disease not to be taken seriously are harshly rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been much interested in the growth of this loathsome, yet altogether too common disease.

He claims that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nostril and throat is a prolific breeding ground for germs—not only the germs of influenza, but many other kinds as well.

If people would only stop experimenting for two weeks and try a simple remedy made of Mentholized Arcine mixed with enough boiled water to make a full pint, half of the catarrh in this country would be abolished.

It's really no joke for people who don't know about this simple recipe to be constantly sniffing and snuffing, blowing and hawking, when all these obnoxious symptoms as well as the foul discharge can be made to disappear in a few days.

Ask for three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine—that's all you need and after you have mixed it with enough boiled water to make a pint, gargle the throat twice daily and snuff or spray some up the nostrils, as directed.

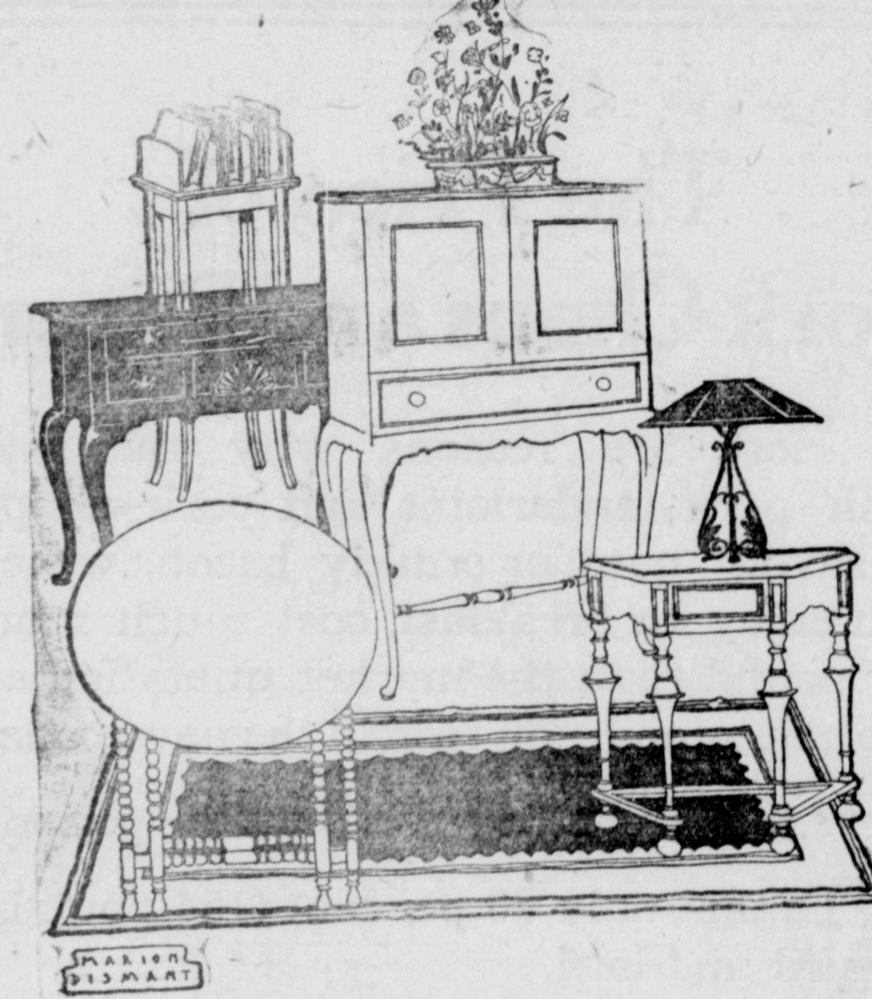

The tender nostrils will soon lose their soreness, heal up, and be clean and healthy.

Important Reminder: Just as soon as anyone in the family gets a cold in the head, check it at once with this same medicine.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask our any druggist for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application of two or three successive baths, your hair is dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c.

Hasn't had a sign of trouble now for over 9 months.

"A year ago I had asthma so bad

I never thought I would never get over it. I had doctored for a long time without results. I had not been in bed for 3 weeks, could not even sit up straight in a chair. Then I heard of Milk Emulsion and started using it. It was only two days later that I could go to bed and sleep soundly. After taking eight bottles ($4 worth) I found myself completely cured. It is over 9 months now since I quit taking Milk Emulsion and I haven't had a symptom of asthma since." Geo. W. Baker, R. D. Latrobe, Pa.

Washington of Chicago, Rev. George Slater and wife and Mrs. Sylvia Bray all of Sabina and Mrs. Lottie Slater of Springfield, were called here on account of the death of Rev. J. S. Ferguson.

The truck carrying workmen from Fairland, skidded and overturned near Oldtown last night. Two of the men were cut about the face. There were about thirty-five in the truck and aside from the shaking up, none of the others sustained any injury.

Miss Eva Leach is confined to her bed with the gripe.

FINAL ACT OF ALSACE-LORRAINE DRAMA ENACTED AFTER 50 YEARS WITH FORMAL RETURN TO FRANCE

Paris, Dec. 8.—Parliament met in special session today yielding up the final act in the drama of Alsace and Lorraine, which had endured for nearly 50 years.

When, on March 1, 1871, M. Cambella read to the national assembly the news that Alsace and Lorraine had been torn from France by Germany, at the same time affirming the unalterable determination of the provinces to remain loyal to the motherland despite German annexation there was born a movement and spirit which inspired Frenchmen for two generations in the heroic struggle for the lost territories.

The long tragedy ended this afternoon when one Alsatian deputy, speaking in the name of his 23 colleagues, solemnly reaffirmed the declaration of 1871. The return of the province to France was formerly announced; they had been reconquered by France with the help of the allies and the United States.

Jules Siegfried, dean of the chamber of deputies, presided. He too, is an Alsatian. Many French residents of the provinces came all the way to Paris to be present at the historic session. When the deputies representing the provinces made their entry into the hall of the palais Bourbon they were greeted with cheers. The other members of parliament and the spectators in the gallery joined in the ovation.

Outside in the streets there was an immense gathering of Parisians.

The new deputies entered the chamber in a body and took their places in 24 new seats that had been especially constructed for the new lawmakers from Alsace and Lorraine. They are in the center behind the government benches.

Leading the eight deputies from Lorraine was General DeMashuky, while among the Alsatians was the noble figure of Abbe Wetterle, the veteran fighter from the Alsatian reichstag.

O. S. AND S. O. HOME SENDS S. O. S. CALL FOR FUEL TO STATE

Columbus, O., Dec. 8.—Urgent requests for coal continued to pour into the offices of the railroad department of the state utilities commission here today.

The Soldier's and Sailor's Orphan's Home at Xenia, Greene county, reported it had only a four day's supply of coal on hand. The utilities commission is trying to obtain coal for the Xenia home from Wellston, at the rate of four cars a day.

Orders have been received by the Norfolk and Western railroad from Director General Hines to discontinue two passenger trains, Nos. 37 and 38 running between Cincinnati and Portsmouth.

The utilities commission announced that other railroads will put into effect a new time schedule this week and many trains throughout the state will be eliminated today and tomorrow in an effort to reduce coal consumption.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS

suspicious unjust or unfounded I was very meek, very humble for days I had been so astonished that Mrs. Currie could calmly carry out her husband's instructions, and at the same time appear happier than at either time I had seen her.

"I am sure I couldn't have done it," I said to myself. Then came the thought: "This woman who knew her husband loved another and yet who did her duty by him, was made happy because she found out that, in spite of his love for the other woman, he had been faithful always—faithful to her. And really that is what counts, after all. As she had said, people couldn't help loving, but they could help being faithless!"

I compared this woman's husband with Walter Kemp—the careless pleasure-seeking man who trampled on women's hearts with no thought of consequences to them, so long as he was happy. Then I thought of Everett, of how I had misjudged him so many times.

"She isn't as jealous a disposition as I am," I said of Mrs. Currie, trying to condone my actions with the old excuse, not realizing that I made no effort to combat my jealous nature but gave way to it, thus making it more intensely alive.

I could not dismiss the incident for days. That and Walter Wemp's accident. I had a letter from mother saying that Rose would not return and live with her parents; that she had taken Walter's loss bravely, although she was incomparably grieved.

"Her mother told me," the letter said, "that Rose and Walter had parted amicably that morning. That he had promised to come home early and take her to dinner and the theater. He had kissed her, and called her 'a good little scout.' Those were his last words to her. They had seemed to comfort Rose."

Of course they did! it WAS nice to feel that he had appreciated her efforts to please him. I recalled her letter written after she returned to him in which she had said she was going to do her very best no matter what Walter did; that she was never going to find fault, or nag him about anything. She evidently had been able to do as she had planned. His calling her "a good little scout" was proof she had tried to please him regardless of herself.

I wished in a careless sort of way that I had some of her grit. "I wish I could dismiss my jealousy, make up my mind never to be jealous again—even of Leola." I said as I stood in the window waiting for Everett to come home. "But I can't! I can't help being jealous—I love him so."

If, instead of excusing myself, I had determined to love and trust, I should have been much happier. I loved, but I did not trust—a condition which makes only for unhappiness.

After my visit to the cemetery I had torn up the note I had found pinned to Leola's dress, and which I had put carefully away. It was a little sign of repentance for having such jealous thoughts as compared to Mrs. Currie's unselfishness, it was the very last of Leola's personal belongings of which I had cognizance. Everything of hers in the attic had long ago been given away. My home had all been done over so that nothing down stairs reminded me of her.

People too had ceased to say anything about "the first Mrs. Graham," or to comment upon my likeness to her—the similarity of our coloring, or the becomingness of sapphire blue. All but Mr. Leveridge; he sometimes still joked about my likeness to Leola. But I cared little for anything he could say. There was really nothing now in my life to cause me to think of the "first Mrs. Graham" yet never for long was she absent from my thoughts. Explain it if you can. I cannot. A word often just a look on Everett's face would lead me to imagine he was thinking of her, perhaps loving her in his thoughts; and I would be miserable.

I know these spells of depression worried Everett. More and more, as time went on, did he try to get me to take Cascarets and enjoy the newest, gentlest laxative-cathartic you ever experienced. Cascarets never gripe, sicken, or cause inconvenience. They work, while you sleep. A box of Cascarets costs so little too.

explain WHY I felt so "blue"—as I expressed it—at times.

"I try to make you happy, Sandra. Is there anything you want? Anything I can do, to prevent these fits of depression?"

"No—it's nothing!" I would assure him, ashamed.

Tomorrow—A Distressful Scene.

MINERS ACCEPT WILSON PLAN FOR SETTLEMENT ON 14 PER CENT RAISE

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 9.—Special—Attorney General Palmer announces the President's proposal for basis of settling coal strike. The plan calls for fourteen per cent wage increase.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 9.—The White House received a telegram from Palmer announcing miners will agree to the President's plan.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 9.—Acceptance by the conference of miners officials here today of the wage proposal made by the President will bring the coal strike to a definite end.

This statement was made today by John L. Lewis, acting-President of the mine workers, who accepted the proposition made by President Wilson in Washington.

"There can be no question but that the strike will be definitely ended and the men will return to work if the conference accepts President Wilson's proposal," declared Lewis.

The miners executive already had expressed the belief that the conference would ratify the government's terms.

Lewis steadfastly declined to reveal the amount of wage increase contained in the government's offer.

"Will the price of coal to the public be increased if the present wage position is accepted?" he was asked.

"That bears on the entire subject matter of the situation and I am not in a position to answer," Lewis replied.

Today in the opinion of government and miners circles is the "judgment day" in the coal crises. With final settlement of the coal situation in prospect before nightfall, three outstanding developments were promised for the day.

POLICE CAPTURE TWO MEMBERS OF ROBBER GANG IN CLEVELAND

Cleveland, O., Dec. 9.—Two members of a gang of five safe robbers who had opened the safe of the Cleveland and Grain Drying company were captured early this morning by the police as they were looting the safe. The three who escaped were followed by a score of bullets, none of which is believed to have taken effect. One of the fleeing robbers was heard to cry out if in pain.

The capture was the first effected by the new flying squadron, instituted by Chief of Police Smith in an effort to cope with the growing crime wave. Sixty-one new patrolmen were in the job today.

Chief Smith announced that the police chiefs of Ohio will press their fight before the legislature for repeal of the parole and indeterminate sentence laws.

Police have obtained no trace of the slayers of Patrolman Robert Shelton—the fourth murdered policeman this year in Cleveland.

GERMANY MAY ACCEPT MODIFIED TERMS OF REPRESENTATIVES

Paris, Dec. 9.—The allies have consented to modify some of the terms of the protocol putting the peace treaty into effect to which Germany has "objection."

The clause providing for indemnity for destruction of the German fleet at Scapa Flow has been modified so as to refer to The Hague tribunal the question whether the delivery of the tonnage demanded will cripple Germany, it is understood.

The understanding also is that the other features of the protocol most objectionable to the Germans have been eliminated.

It is expected that the German plenipotentiaries will sign the protocol without much further delay.

The final paragraph of the protocol providing that, even after the peace treaty has gone into effect, the allies might use military measures of coercion to insure the execution of the treaty's terms, has been eliminated entirely, as also has the clause relating to the evacuation of the Baltic provinces by German troops.

WILL POSTPONE INVESTIGATION OF COAL STRIKE

"BETTER" SAYS GRAYSON OF WILSON'S CONDITION

Washington, Dec. 9.—President Wilson's condition was described by Dr. Grayson with just one word today.

"Better," said the physician. Plans are now being discussed by Mrs. Wilson and the president for a reunion of the family at the White House at Christmas.

TRAIN SERVICE THROUGH XENIA CURTAILED NOW

PENNSYLVANIA AND B. & O. ANNOUNCE NEW SCHEDULES DUE TO CONSERVATION ORDER OF GARFIELD.

Trains scheduled through here both on the Pennsylvania and the B. and O. lines will be affected by the order just issued to cut mileage in order to conserve coal.

Three trains on the Pennsylvania schedule will be cut off by the order. Train No. 205, which leaves Xenia for Cincinnati at 8:30 a. m., train No. 234 which leaves here for Columbus at 5:50 p. m., and the 6:50 train out of here for Dayton, Richmond and St. Louis have all been removed.

Train No. 1231 which leaves here at 8:10 a. m. for Cincinnati will stop at Spring Valley, Waynesville and Morrow, to take care of those places, and train No. 1234 for Columbus at 7:02 in the evening will also make all stops.

The passenger service over the Baltimore and Ohio will be cut in half by the order. Trains No. 67 and 70 having been removed entirely. These trains are the morning train to Dayton and the evening train to Chillicothe, all stations between these two points being affected by the change.

Under the new order only two trains, a train east in the morning and a train west in the evening, will be operated by the B. & O., through this city.

A cut aggregating 10 per cent of the passenger train mileage, in order to conserve coal, is the cause of the changes.

FRANK GARLAND WILL TALK ON NEW HOSPITAL

An issue of vital importance to the people of Greene county will be discussed by Dr. Frank Garland, director of Public Welfare of Dayton, at the regular noon luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday.

Dr. Garland will speak on the subject "Conservation of Humanity," and in the course of his address will tell of the advantages of a modern hospital. What is of especial interest locally is the fact to be brought out by Mr. Garland that throughout the country where cities are maintaining hospitals, they are in every instance paying propositions.

The question of a county memorial hospital, as a means of a memorial for the soldiers, sailors and marines of this county, and as a means of filling a great need in the community, will come before the people at a special election to be held next Tuesday.

The majority of the people of the county recognize not only the advantage but the absolute necessity of a county hospital it is believed.

BIGGEST CURTAILMENT OF RAILROAD SERVICE IN HISTORY STARTED

Columbus, O., Dec. 9.—Sustaining the constitutionality of the Ohio cold storage act, the state supreme court today affirmed the action of the Franklin county courts which found Theodore Leonard, Jr., a Columbus merchant guilty of violating this act. Leonard was convicted of keeping fowl in cold storage beyond the time limit prescribed by the cold storage act.

Over a score of cases in various courts throughout Ohio have been held in abeyance pending decision of this case. The defendants in these suits are charged with violating the cold storage act. The litigation, which was instituted under the supervision of Governor Cox and Attorney General Price in an effort to reduce the high cost of living, is now expected to resume.

SUSTAINS OHIO COLD STORAGE ACT--TEST CASE IN OHIO COURT

New York, Dec. 9.—The biggest cut in train service in the history of American railways goes into effect tonight when 550 trains are eliminated on eastern lines to conserve fuel. The railways affected are the Pennsylvania, New York, New Haven and Hartford, New York Central, West Shore, Erie, Lackawana and Long Island. The new schedule is effective one minute after midnight.

EXPECT SETTLEMENT OF COAL STRIKE TODAY

Washington, Dec. 9.—In a statement issued at the White House, hope for settlement of the coal strike is held out. The statement said: "It is hoped that there will be a settlement this afternoon of the controversy between the miners, the operators and the government through acceptance by the miners of a plan for a definite settlement proposed by the president, which proposal was submitted to Acting President Lewis of the miners by Attorney General Palmer Saturday night."

White House officials refused to give out the definite terms of the president's proposal.

NO EMBARGO ON FREIGHT EXPECTED

Washington, Dec. 9.—A national freight embargo is not contemplated at this time, the railroad administration announced today. It was stated the situation brought about by the coal strike can be handled by the regional directors declaring local embargoes.

Some western roads urged regional directors to ask for a national embargo.

HARRY S. NEW ON TRIAL DECEMBER 16 FOR SWEETHEART'S DEATH.

Harry S. New, alleged son of Harry S. New, of Indiana, who shot and killed his sweetheart, Frieda Lesser, in the lonely Topanga Canyon, Los Angeles, last April, will face trial for his crime on December 16, in Los Angeles.

The new law, revised by City Health Officer Dr. R. H. Grube, will go into effect January 1. The object of the new system is to insure pure milk for city consumers and make vendors bring their milk up to the standard set by the city before they can sell their product.

Who deliver milk within the city limits from more than three cows. Before a license will be issued to these vendors, the milk dealers must furnish a list of all the dairies from which they get their milk following which the city health department will investigate these sources as to purity and cleanliness.

The license will cost the vendor $5 for every six months.

By the law revisions, vendors will also be required to notify the Health Department every time they change herds.

The Health Department will also grade both dairies and vendors and the grades will be published.

EXPECT DEVELOPMENT IN MEXICAN SITUATION AS CARRANZA REPLY STARTS

Generally Believed That Answer Will Be in Favor of Another Evasion of Real Issue. President Considers Fall Report.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The next development in the Mexican situation is expected today with the probable arrival of the Carranza reply to the last note of the state department.

The reply is understood to be in the course of transmission. It is generally believed here that the note will be another attempt at evasion, pointing out that consular Agent William O. Jennings has already been released.

Publication today of the complete report made by Senator Fall to President Wilson on the Mexican situation was not expected to change materially the situation. The charges made by Senator Fall that there has been collusion between officials of the Mexican can government and radicals in the United States are understood to have been the subject of previous state department investigations. Senator Fall also quoted Carranza himself as giving directions which would look for strong Mexican forces on the Texas border and the report hints at an alliance between Mexico and Japan but it is understood that all of these matters have had the attention of the state department.

President Wilson is studying the report made by Senator Fall and if he decides it is sufficient evidence embodied in it to warrant the action, he will take the matter up with Secretary of State Lansing.

With the new laws, revised by City Health Officer Dr. R. H. Grube, will go into effect on the first of the year and which was up for repeal before the State legislature Tuesday has been receiving considerable opposition.

While it is understood that the poorer counties of the state are fighting the measure the strongest, there has also been some opposition locally, the chief snag in the measure being the matter of expense to the community.

The bill provides for an elaborate system of disease fighting that includes a county physician, two nurses, bacteriologist, clerk, equipment and automobiles for transportation over the county, and many of the counties rebelled against the expense to be incurred in this manner.

Physicians, who are more closely in touch with the health situation than any one else, have strongly favored the bill.

City Health Officer Dr. R. H. Grube favors the project from the standpoint of public health although he admitted that there was much opposition to the bill because of the expense to the counties.

City Manager Kenyon Riddle, who was a member of the body organizing the public health committee, is also thoroughly in favor with the plan as a motive to preserve health and fight disease in the county.

In fact the system is flawless, and only the fact that its expense to the counties is so great that they are hardly able to take care of it, has caused the opposition to the bill to arise.

MILK DEALERS ARE ANNOUNCING RAISE OF 1 CENT A QUART

Columbus, O., Dec. 9.—Due to the strenuous football season at Ohio State University the last fall, many students are receiving notification, and possibly parents and guardians also, from the deans of the university schools, that their work is not up to the standard.

From the 2,318 students in the arts college, 358 were found to be slightly below grade, while 350 students of the 1,478 enrolled in the engineering college were in the same classification.

This does not mean that the students will be compelled to withdraw from school. They will be given another opportunity to improve their marks.

The high price of butter fat is blamed for the raise in milk prices here.

DRASIC CONSERVANCY MEASURES INVOKED; INDUSTRIES CRIPPLED

Garfield Revives Regulations Used During Famine of 1917-18. Restrictions Placed On Office and Store Supplies. Non-essentials Hit.

Washington, Dec. 9.—With settlement of the coal strike likely to come of coal rationing which is as stringent as that in force during the most pressing days of the war.

Dr. Garfield, fuel administrator, looking with apprehension upon the growing shortage of bituminous coal, has put in force regulations restricting the use of coal to the most essential needs.

All lights, other than those necessary for the safety of the public have been ordered discontinued.

Cabarets, dance halls and pool rooms are allowed to be open only from 7 p. m. until 11 p. m.

Stores, with the exception of those selling food, must not use light longer than six hours a day.

Manufacturing plants are allowed to use light only so long as they are allowed to use power.

Drug stores and restaurants are ordered to reduce their lighting one-half.

Lights in office buildings are ordered cut off at 4 p. m., with the exception of those offices necessary to the maintenance of a vital industry.

Orders have been issued to maintain heat only to an average of 68 degrees Fahrenheit.

With these drastic regulations put in force fuel administrator Garfield believes that if the coal strike is settled today that the nation will rapidly recover from the shortage which has been brought on by the strike.

The regulations issued apply to all non-essential industries, the fuel administration announced today, and those manufacturers who have large reserve stocks of coal on hand are not exempted. Local fuel committees will rule as to essential and non-essential industries wherever possible.

STATE EMPLOYEES OUT FOR INCREASE

Columbus, O., Dec. 9.—The state employees branch of the federation of labor are out for advanced wages, but they are not out on strike in order to obtain them. The organization seeks a straight increase, according to George M. Morris, its president.

The civil service commission, however, expects to recommend a bonus plan, giving a graduated percentage of increase only during the "stress period of high prices," said Randolph Walton, member of the commission.

Washington, Dec. 9.—President Wilson will send a special message to Congress on the railroad situation within a few days, it was announced today.

NOTICE TO ORGANIZATIONS ON ANNOUNCEMENTS

"Conserve newsprint or suffer a paper famine" has been the warning of paper mills to publishers for the past few months. This prediction is fast approaching actuality and in order to protect themselves and their customers, publishers have been forced to cut down their consumption of paper.

With this idea in mind the Gazette and Republican recently announced that a slight charge would be made for announcements of meetings which they had, prior to that time, printed free. Realizing that this ruling would work a hardship on many organizations, such as G. A. R., Social Service League and W. R. C., which had no fund to take care of this expense, these papers in the desire for co-operation and service wish to announce a new policy that will serve these ends.

All notices which were printed free before the change, will be carried the same way hereafter, providing that these notices are received at the offices of The Gazette and Republican, not later than 5 p.m. Friday. They will then be placed in a special position by themselves and appear in the papers of Saturday's issue. Notices will be printed on any other day, excepting at the full commercial rate.

JOHN B. MASON DIES AT SPRING VALLEY HOME ON TUESDAY

John B. Mason for 33 years a justitice of the peace in Spring Valley township and one of the oldest members of the Xenia lodge of Masons, died at 7:45 Tuesday morning at his home south of Spring Valley, aged 88 years. He had been bedfast four weeks, but he suffered from no ailment except the weakness of old age. His mind remained clear to the last.

"Squire" Mason, as he was known throughout Greene and surrounding counties, was a native of Bellbrook, but since he was 5 years of age except for a brief period, his home was on the farm where he died. He served his country throughout the civil war and was a member of the Spring Valley post of the G. A. R. He had been affiliated with the Xenia lodge of Masons since he was 21 years of age.

By a strange coincidence his death occurred on the twenty-first anniversary of that of his wife, who was buried before her marriage, Miss Mary Cook. He is survived by five children: Mrs. John Brown, of Centerville; Mrs. Elizabeth Hartsock and John C. Mason of Spring Valley. D. M. Mason of Cincinnati, and Frank E. Mason of Dayton. He was a member of the Friends church of Spring Valley, where funeral services will be held, Thursday at 10:30. Interment in Woodland cemetery, Xenia.

TOBACCO BUSINESS IS ENLARGED; NEW COMPANY FORMED

The enlargement of the wholesale
and retail tobacco business of Rufus Mullen will result from the formation of the Mullen-Jenkins Tobacco Company, comprised of Rufus Mullin
and his brother-in-law S. B. Jenkins.

Mr. Jenkins, a former Xenian, who has been located in Cleveland for some time, has purchased an interest in the jobbing and retail tobacco business of Mr. Mullin and with the combination the business will be increased to include a larger scope. Mr. Jenkins will travel for the company on the road and Mrs.
Jenkins will be bookkeeper for the new concern, the headquarters for which will still be located in the Mullin
barber shop.

John Cyphers, who has been connected with Mr. Mullin for some time will continue in his capacity as local and county salesman, and will travel through the country by automobile. Mr.
Mullen has turned over the supervision
of his barber shop to Harvey Coates, who has been a barber at the Mullin shop for several years, and who will have direct charge of that department.
Mr. Mullin himself, while heading the new company, will act as general manager
and buyer.

It is the plan of the company to extend the tobacco jobbing business
to double its present capacity, carrying and handling larger lines over a greater territory.

The Mullin shop has been recently improved by interior decorations the woodwork all being done in white enamel to correspond with the chairs and the room being repainted. The furniture has also been renovated and the shop converted into one of the prettiest and most sanitary in this section.

tobacco.

Fine as these tobaccos are, it's the ex-

that gives to Chesterfields that satisfying
body, that mellow richness which makes a smoke mean something.

Chesterfields certainly do satisfy as no

THE SIN OF EXTRAVAGANCE.

The Savings Division of the Treasury Department has been making investigations, and finds that the high prices of necessities and non-necessities are due to reckless spending and waste. It gives the testimony of merchants in various lines of trade that increased income has led not to saving but to extravagance.

That is worth reading again. It says that the high prices of necessities is due to reckless spending. Reckless spending—by whom? Certainly not by the mechanic who, after paying his rent, is hard pressed to find the means to feed and clothe his wife and children. No. He has to pinch all the time to keep his head above water. No extravagance on his part.

Who then, are these "reckless spenders" who are to blame for the high prices of the necessities of life? Why, they are the rich, and the well-to-do people. With them money is so plenty that they pay any price asked, and thus boom trade. The merchant, finding plenty of customers at the high prices, and making so much money for himself, feels no reason for lowering prices—and thus the poor man is caught between the upper and nether millstone and his life almost squeezed out.

Well, what is the remedy. It is to try to shame people for reckless buying—to try to show them that they are doing a sinful thing to thus keep up the price on the poor. They are doing a double harm. They are harming themselves, for extravagance is wrong—and they are harming the poor, who so much need cheap prices.

Many a well-to-do man is spending money for fine clothes, jewelry and automobiles, which he cannot afford; who ought to be buying himself a home with the money. He is one of the class whose money seems to burn holes in their pockets.

We read of one chain of drug stores which alone sold $6,000,000 worth of perfumes and cosmetics during the year. It may be highly enjoyable to smell like sweet-scented geranium, but the odor of $6,000,000 bearing interest in safe and profitable securities is not objectionable to the nostrils either.

The demand for diamonds and high-priced furs is enormous. The jeweler and the furrier say that these luxuries are not for old millionaires or the new rich. They are demanded by the rich, the salaried people and high priced wage earners who are squandering on them the savings piled up during the last few years.

The conclusion is that so long as extravagance and waste, reckless spending and dissipation of savings continues, prices will continue to remain at or above the present level; and that only saving, wise buying and safe and conservative investment will cause them to drop.

Economy is the parent of ease and the sister of cheerfulness. Large enterprises make the few rich, but the majority prosper only through thrift. A wise man once said the regard one shows Economy, is like that we show an old aunt who is to leave us something at last. Nothing is cheap which is superfluous; for what one does not need is dear at any price.

Mahogany Cultivation.

As grown in plantations, the mahogany is partially shaded until it attains the dimensions of a real forest tree. At first it may be grown among banana plants and later as it reaches the sapling size the bananas will be found replaced by cacao or chocolate trees. After these latter have produced 25 or 30 annual crops of their valuable beans the mahogany will practically take entire possession of the field and the cacao trees will be largely smothered out, bearing less and less each year as the more giant mahogany overshadows them. Plantations of mahogany and rubber trees growing together are also being experimented with, both being deep forest trees. In their early growth the rubber trees also require partial shade from the sun.

X. H. S. COURT SEASON OPENS WITH ACADEMY

Preliminary action to starting the basketball season were taken at a meeting held Monday after school.

A paper was circulated last week to find the names of those who intended trying out for the teams and sixty-three signified their intention of doing so. From this list Coach Faires selected twenty-five men from which to form the first squad and they were called to meet to line them up.

The meeting was for the purpose of presenting to the players competing for positions the plan under which basketball will be played.

Mr. Faires took charge of the meeting and explained some of the conditions that will be met. It is planned to have two teams of practically the same strength so that either may be put on the floor. If the plan works out one team may play at home while the other is on a foreign court.

He explained the provisions for furnishing uniforms and said that there would be eight suits for each of the first two teams and about six suits left from last year. No one will be issued suits until the game Friday night.

The first practice will be held Tuesday night at the Rink. The first game is scheduled with Antioch Academy for this Friday night at the Rink.

The schedule has been almost completed and only one open date is left, but a number of teams want games and it will not be hard to get a game for that date. A few more games will probably be added to the schedule later. The complete schedule is:

Dec. 12—Antioch Academy, here.

Dec. 19—Lebanon, here.

Dec. 26—Miamiburg, away.

Jan. 2—Urbana, here.

Jan. 9—South High (Columbus) here.

Jan. 10—Springfield, away.

Jan. 15—Washington, away.

Jan. 22, 23, 24—Tournament, here.

Jan. 30—Circleville, away.

Feb. 6—Miamisburg, here.

Feb. 13—Urbana, away.

Feb. 20—Open.

Feb. 21—Liberty (Ind.) here.

Mar. 5, 6—Delaware Tournament, away.

Mar. 12—Middletown, away.

Apostle Spoons.

Apostle spoons, also called "gossip spoons," were gilt spoons given by the sponsors or "gossips" to a child at its christening. They were so called because each spoon had a figure of an apostle on the handle. Wealthy people gave the whole twelve Apostles; those of less means and generosity gave the four Evangelists; while poorer persons had to be contented with one, being generally the figure of the donor's or the child's patron saint.

MINISTER WANTS TO HELP

It is only natural that one who has been relieved from suffering should feel grateful and want to help others. Rev. W. F. M. Sywold, 818 Elm St., Macon, Ga., writes: "My kidneys gave me much trouble before I took Foley Pills. I am ready at any time to speak a word for Foley Kidney Pills."

Mr. Omer Shirk was a Dayton visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Homer Roger and son, Leslie, of Dayton, spent Friday and Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Spahr.

Miss Cora Shirk of Dayton, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives here.

NOT AN ISOLATED CASE

Many similar Cases in Xenia and Vicinity.

This Xenia man's story given here is not an isolated case by any means; week after week, year after year, our neighbors are telling similar good news.

Mrs. S. E. Ayres, 321 South Miami Street, says: "I had rheumatic pains and could hardly walk; the muscles of my limbs were awfully sore and lame and cutting pains went through me every time I moved. Nights I couldn't get any rest to amount to anything, because my back throbbed with pains. I used Doan's Kidney Pills that I got at Sohn's Drug store and they soon rid me of the trouble entirely. Since then, when I have felt the need of a kidney medicine, I have used Doan's and they have always helped me."

Price 60¢ at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy — get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Ayres had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR ZIMRI HAINES

Funeral services for the late Zimri Haines, well known Greene county farmer, were held at the New Hope church, at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon.

The services were in charge of Rev. Wright, assisted by Rev. Trout, former pastor of Mr. Haines. All of the children were present excepting Mrs. Lewis Weihe of Belleview, Kentucky, who was unable to be present because of illness.

Burial was made in New Hope cemetery the pallbearers being the four sons, Tilghman, Eber, Russell and Elton, and two sons-in-law, Clarence Tellfair and John B. Tellfair.

Children like it, and there is nothing better than you can give them when they are ailing.

CELERY KING

Get a package tonight. It's cheap and you can brew a lot of tea with one package.

Take a cup every other night to regulate your bowels, to purify your blood and make you strong, so you can withstand an attack of influenza if it happens to come along this winter.

It's one great vegetable laxative, and it won't cost you but a few cents to find it out.

Children like it, and there is nothing better than you can give them when they are ailing.

RELIEF CAME AT LAST

Father Had Given Up Hope of Curing Son's Cough

Mr. A. F. Sherer, owner of a mangle shop, Haverhill, Ohio, says, "My son had a cough for several years. We began to think his case a hopeless one. He could get no relief until he used Gland-Pine. Three bottles cured him."

A neglected cough has undoubtedly caused more deaths than any other disease. A lingering cough should be quiet the tissues of the lungs will be promptly treated. If allowed to weaken and the power to resist epidemics of cold and grip is lessened.

By getting three ounces of Gland-Pine you can make one pint of excellent cough syrup. Keep it on hands and use it freely. Stop that cough before it has too firm a grip upon you. Don't be careless and make a mistake that may cost you your life.

If you can not get Gland-Pine from your druggist, send 50 cents to The Gland-Aid Co., Paulding, Ohio, and it will be sent you.

It is easy to prepare, tastes but little, and is pleasant to take. It is splendid for coughs, colds, bronchial affections, and highly recommended for croup. It will relieve the spasmodic coughing in whooping cough. Gland-Pine contains the pure form of white pine to which other valuable ingredients have been added. Directions for preparing accompany each bottle.

URGES PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY

Can Make Pint at Home and Costs Little, Says Leading Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made Special Study of Catarrh.

Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

People who say that catarrh is a disease not to be taken seriously are harshly rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been much interested in the growth of this loathsome, yet altogether too common disease.

He claims that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nostrils and throat is a prolific breeding ground for germs—not only the germs of Influenza, but many other kinds as well.

Ask for three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine—that's all you need and after you have mixed it with enough boiled water to make a pint, gargle the throat twice daily and snuff or spray some up the nostrils, as directed.

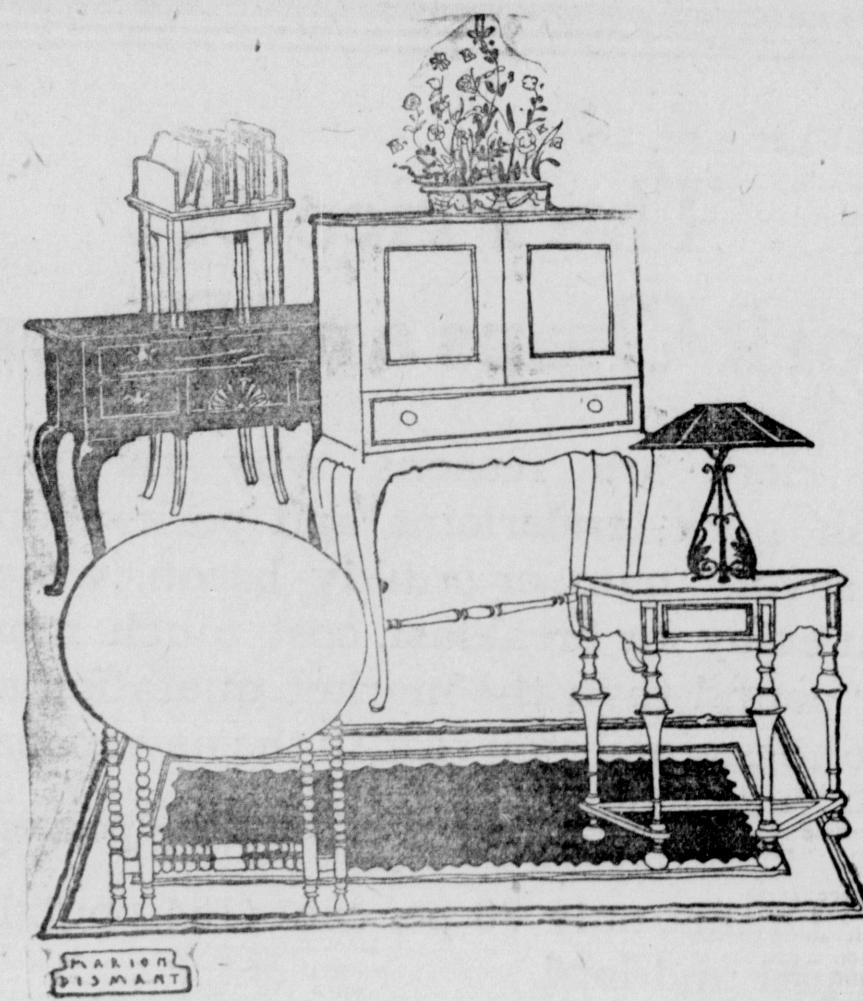

The tender nostrils will soon lose their soreness, heal up, and be clean and healthy.

Important Reminder: Just as soon as anyone in the family gets a cold in the head, check it at once with this same medicine.

LOCAL BUSINESS CHANGES HANDS

Phillip LaBelle, who for the past three years has conducted a shoe repair shop on South Detroit street, has sold out the business to John Simson, well-known former Xenian, who took charge of the business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. LaBelle will remain in Xenia for a time but expect to leave about the first of the year for Los Angeles, California, where the climate is better suited to Mrs. LaBelle's health. Mr. and Mrs. LaBelle came to Xenia from Cincinnati eight years ago, and for five years Mr. LaBelle was foreman of the welt room at the Xenia Shoe factory, starting up the shoe repair business three years ago.

Mr. Simson, the new owner is a thorough shoe man having been connected with the Xenia Shoe factory for 25 years, the last fifteen of which he was superintendent. He has been living at Hilltop, near Dayton for some time and has been connected with the Miami Conservancy District.

It is a peculiar coincidence that Mr. Simson hired Mr. LaBelle as head of the welt room at the local factory when the latter first came here eight years ago.

Mr. LaBelle will remain with the shop for a while. Mr. Simson will retain the present employees. Jim Norris and Forest Casad. He will continue to be Wear-U-Well shoe agent and expects to add a line of ladies' shoes soon.

ELECTRICAL CONCERN NEWLY INCORPORATED

The W. B. Hill Electrical company dealers in electrical supplies and fixtures and also doing electrical work of all kinds, has been incorporated with a capital stock of $10,000.

The incorporators of the new company are Wilmer B. Hill, who has been in the electrical business here for some time, Daniel Wright, Lawrence D. Wilson and Ohmer Tate. The newly organized concern will move into the room in the Davidson property on Greene street at present occupied by the plumbing establishment of Asa Price, on the first of 1920.

The concern will have both the ground floor and the basement, using the basement as a stock and display room for showing their line of fixtures and supplies. The incorporation also has the agency in this district for the Willys Light, an electrical power and light system for country homes.

W. B. Hill will be manager of the new concern.

MAN ARRESTED HERE IS ADJUDGED INSANE

Nathan R. Gilbert, 62 of Piqua, who was arrested here and turned over to Miami County authorities after he had attempted to steal an automobile, was adjudged insane by Probate Judge L. F. St. John of Troy Saturday and sent to the Dayton State Hospital.

Drs. J. S. Shinn and Dr. Warren Coleman examined the man before the judge gave his decision. His condition is due to a fall which he sustained May 2, 1919.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS

Nothing is Left to Remind Sandra of Leola.
CHAPTER CXL.
As always when I had proven my suspicion unjust or unfounded I was very meek, very humble for days. I had been so astonished that Mrs. Currie could calmly carry out her husband's instructions, and at the same time appear happier than at either time I had seen her.

"I am sure I couldn't have done it," I said to myself. Then came the thought: "This woman who knew her husband loved another and yet who did her duty by him, was made happy because she found out that, in spite of his love for the other woman, he had been faithful, always—faithful to her. And really that is what counts, after all. As she had said, people couldn't help loving, but they could help being faithless!"

I compared this woman's husband with Walter Kemp—the careless pleasure-seeking man who trampled on women's hearts with no thought of consequences to them, so long as he was happy. Then I thought of Everett, of how I had misjudged him so many times.

She isn't as jealous a disposition as I am. "I said of Mrs. Currie, trying to condone my actions with the old excuse, not realizing that I made no effort to combat my jealous nature but gave way to it, thus making it more intensely alive.

I could not dismiss the incident for days. That and Walter Wemp's accident. I had a letter from mother saying that Rose would not return and live with her parents; that she had taken Walter's loss bravely, although she was inexplicably grieved.

"Her mother told me, "the letter said" that Rose and Walter had parted amicably that morning. That he had promised to come home early and take her to dinner and the theater. He had kissed her, and called her "a good little scout." Those were his last words to her. They had seemed to comfort Rose."

Of course they did! It was nice to feel that he had appreciated her efforts to please him. I recalled her letter written after she returned to him in which she had said she was going to do her very best no matter what Walter did; that she was never going to find fault, or nag him about anything. She evidently had been able to do as she had planned. His calling her "a good little scout" was proof she had tried to please him regardless of herself.

I wished in a carefree sort of way that I had some of her grit. "I wish I could dismiss my jealousy, make up my mind never to be jealous again—even of Leola." I said as I stood in the window waiting for Everett to come home. "But I can't! I can't help being jealous—I love him so."

If, instead of excusing myself, I had determined to love and trust, I should have been much happier. I loved, but I did not trust—a condition which makes only for unhappiness.

After my visit to the cemetery I had torn up the note I had found pinned to Leola's dress, and which I had put carefully away. It was little sign of repentance for having such jealous thoughts as compared to Mrs. Currie's unselfishness, it was the very last of Leola's personal belongings of which I had cognizance. Everything of hers in the attic had long ago been given away. My home had all been done over so that nothing down stairs reminded me of her.

People too had ceased to say anything about "the first Mrs. Graham," or to comment upon my likeness to her—the similarity of our coloring, or the becomingness of sapphire blue. All but Mr. Leveridge; he sometimes still joked about my likeness to Leola. But I cared little for anything he could say. There was really nothing now in my life to cause me to think of the "first Mrs. Graham" yet never for long was she absent from my thoughts. Explain it if you can. I cannot. A word often just a look on Everett's face would lead me to imagine he was thinking of her, perhaps loving her in his thoughts; and I would be miserable.

I know these spells of depression worried Everett. More and more, as time went on, did he try to get me to explain WHY I felt so "blue"—as I expressed it—at times.

"I try to make you happy, Sandra. Is there anything you want? Anything I can do, to prevent these fits of depression?"

"No—it's nothing!" I would assure him, ashamed.

Tomorrow—A Distressful Scene.

HEAR'S LAUDING; HAS FAIR TRIAL; SECURES RELIEF

"Trutona is Splendid" is What Springfield Lady Says of the Perfect Tonic.

Springfield, O., Dec. 8th—Because others spoke so highly of Trutona, Mrs. Albert J. Hunter, who is connected with the Western Mutual Life Insurance Co., and resides at 319 Cedar street, decided to try the Perfect Tonic. She describes her relief as follows:

Continued suffering from stomach trouble and nervousness has caused my system to become generally run down. My appetite was poor and the little food I did eat didn't seem to digest properly as I was bothered with belching and bloating for about an hour after meals. Restless nights were not an unusual thing for me and as a consequence I was often tired and worn out through the day.

I am certainly very glad that I decided to try Trutona for I feel a great deal better now. I eat hearty meals these days and they are properly digested too. I'm not nearly so nervous and I feel as if I was gaining in both weight and strength. I think that Trutona is a splendid medicine.

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Xenia at Sayre & Hemphill's.
